J B Singh
President and CEO, InterGlobe
Technology Quotient (ITQ)

JB Singh, President and CEO, InterGlobe Technology Quotient (ITQ) Adventurous by nature, JB Singh, President and CEO of InterGlobe Technology Quotient (ITQ) likes to explore through road journeys and heads on to one such expedition every year. He is also an avid golfer and makes a point to at least indulge in it once a week. Singh likes music and reads both fiction and non-fiction works.

He swears by the potential of Indian market and believes that clarity of mind is a perfect antidote to stress, created at higher positions. In a complex situation, he likes to get to the root of the issue and decides the course of action with a clear mind reposing complete faith in ones' abilities.
